Vote "YES" on Measure CC to make Belmont's City Clerk position an appointed position based on merit, not on politics.

Vote "YES" to ensure the City Clerk position is appointed by the City Manager based on qualifications and experience. According to Belmont City Code Section 2-28, only the City Manager could make such an appointment in the future.

We all agree the City Clerk position requires increasingly sophisticated skills and background to help keep the City running. Current law only requires this person be at least 18 years of age and a registered voter in the City.

That's not enough to protect Belmont's need for a qualified professional to serve as City Clerk.

VOTE "YES" to join the 75 percent of cities in California that appoint their City Clerks.

Join your City Council and neighbors in support of Measure CC.
