Rebuttal to the Argument Against Measure W
Redwood City School District

Authors of the argument against Measure W oppose every school measure in San Mateo County. As usual, their arguments are misleading and distort the truth.

The Redwood City Council, Redwood City Chamber of Commerce, elected leaders in Atherton, Menlo Park and San Carlos, and League of Women Voters of South San Mateo County know the facts. They support a YES vote on W.

Because our schools are the lowest-funded in our area, local children need Measure W to receive a quality public education like students in neighboring communities.

Our schools have suffered $13 million in cuts and "tightened the belt" by reducing district office administration by 20%, laying off 120 teachers and increasing class sizes.

Measure W is limited, targeted and specific. It can only be used to protect math, science, reading and writing programs; retain qualified teachers and support school libraries.

Measure W's citizen oversight committee, annual reports and annual independent, third-party audits provide transparency, verifying all funds are used for voter-approved purposes. No funds can be spent on administrators' salaries.

Measure W won't solve the entire budget problem. It provides $1.7 million in stable funding to protect academic priorities, giving our schools local control.

For less than $6 per month, we will provide local students with skills needed for future success in high school, college and well-paying jobs.

Measure W is a win for local students and our community. Good schools mean safe neighborhoods and strong property values.

Vote YES.
